About Us - The Federation of Italian-American Organizations of Brooklyn, Ltd. is a 501 (C)(3) community based organization assisting individuals and families in the Italian-American community at large. It's multi-lingual staff and volunteers provide a variety of direct as well as referral services at its main-office and numerous schools. All services are FREE and open to ALL in the community.

Il Centro - Il Centro is the first Italian American Cultural Community Center to be constructed in the City of New York. It will be located at 8711 Cristoforo Colombo Blvd. (18th Avenue), Brooklyn. Il Centro will expand services and will serve as a cultural resource to Italian Americans as well as become a model to all ethnic groups in how to preserve, celebrate, and share one's own heritage in a multicultural society.

After-School Programs - Homework assistance, academics, counseling and recreation are enriched by such offerings as dance, drama, theater and community services initiatives. These opportunities are open to youngsters at the following school sites: P.S. 48, P.S. 97, P.S. 128, P.S. 163, P.S. 209, P.S. 226, P.S. 682, P.S. 748, Brooklyn Studio Middle School, I.S. 201, I.S. 281, I.S. 180, Most Precious Blood and St. Athanasius School, Visitation Academy, Our Lady of Grace, Our Space.

Social Services - Our professionally trained multi-lingual staff and volunteers provide a gamut of assistance. The social services include immigration, social security, workers compensation, HEAP support, public assistance applications, just to name a few.

Substance Abuse Prevention - Services include youth leadership, conflict resolution, counseling, English as a second language and academic remediation and enrichment classes.

Beacon/Cornerstone Initiative - Year-round Beacon School Program at I.S. 96 and Cornerstone program at the Marlboro Housing Community Center provided academic, recreational and counseling services to youth and families especially problematic youth after school, evenings, weekends, and during holidays. Beacon and Cornerstone offer several enrichment classes and activities including: career development, computer classes, G.E.D., S.A.T., and CO-OP preparations; E.S.L. and foreign languages such as Italian and Chinese; music, dance, theater and more.

Cultural Activities - FIAO offers language and culture classes, youth cultural exchanges with Italy, youth and family pairing, community theatrical performances, and the Brooklyn Columbus Parade.

Scholarships - Grants to high school graduates from families of member organizations pursuing higher education.

Athletics - Intramural and traveling soccer program. Intramural Beacon and Cornerstone Basketball Program. The focus of the leagues is to teach self-discipline, teamwork, and the skills to play each sport.
